

PREPOSITIONS

AT / IN / ON

at:	a specific time work, home, school an address (with numbers) a specific place	in:	a month a year a country a city	on:	a specific day the surface of something a street (no numbers)
-----	--	-----	--	-----	---

I. FILL-IN-THE-BLANK with AT / IN / ON

1. We eat lunch _____ noon.
2. The cat is _____ top of my car!
3. It gets cold _____ January.
4. Valentine's Day is _____ February
5. We always wash our car _____ Saturday.
6. _____ 3:30, the students will take an exam.
7. Jane lives _____ 42 Baker Avenue.
8. Kaye lives _____ California.
9. Sebastian is sleeping _____ the sofa.
10. Jack is _____ work.
11. Neko, my cat, is sleeping _____ my leg.
12. May Lee lives _____ China.
13. _____ Monday, I must work.
14. Jay lives _____ Baker Street.

II. CORRECT OR WRONG?

- a) My birthday is on April.
 - b) Kaye's birthday is in April.
 - c) Eric is in work.
 - d) Elaine is at home.
 - e) Sam works on McDonald's.
 - f) There is a fly in my soup!
-

Between / Among

BETWEEN	AMONG / AMONGST
Use BETWEEN when you have two people or two things.	Use AMONG for more than two people or two things.
My cat sleeps between my husband and me.	The dog is playing among the flowers outside.

READ the sentence, complete with among or between.

- 1) The three children fought _____ themselves.
 - 2) The rabbit was standing _____ two trees.
 - 3) Jack, this candy is to be shared _____ you and your sister.
 - 4) Hey! Let's not fight _____ ourselves, ok?
 - 5) My bed is _____ two windows.
 - 6) My brother, sister and I used to argue _____ ourselves.
 - 7) Sylvia is standing _____ her mother and father in that picture.
 - 8) I looked for a pencil _____ all the things on my desk.
 - 9) There's my pencil! It's _____ the lamp and the fan.
 - 10) Here you go children, share these apples _____ yourselves.
-