

Peter Parker's Secret

How would you define responsibility?

What responsibilities do you have?

Are you responsible? (really!!!) Why?

Instructions: Fill in the blanks with: in order to, so as to, so that, despite, in spite of, although, though, because, because of and the correct indefinite pronoun whenever it's necessary.

Peter Parker was a normal college student who loved science and lived very happy with his aunt Mary and his uncle Ben. He studied in a very strict university where hard work was a routine and student-teacher relationships were prohibited. There wasn't any other institute like this one _____ in the country. But Peter was a special student and _____ his love for science, teachers loved him. _____ the rules of the university, a teacher invited him to a demonstration of a new technology called "Neo Genics" where spiders were analyzed under radiation. When he was watching the experiment, a spider climbed out of the box and bit Peter in the arm. The following day, Peter felt strange; he was stronger and more powerful. Peter asked: "Is it _____ the radiation? He didn't know what to do with this new power. He was scared. He couldn't tell _____ because if he told people his secret, they would call him crazy. The next day, his aunt Mary asked him to do the grocery shopping and while he was crossing the street, a truck was coming down the street at full speed. Without thinking, he jumped _____ he wouldn't get hit by the truck, and landed on the roof of a 4-floor building. Peter couldn't believe it. He was surprised - _____ his new ability, but he was more surprised that he could climb walls. He soon learned about all the powers he had gotten, such as super-human agility, super-human strength and a sixth sense he had _____ to avoid danger. _____ Peter was human, he had all the powers of a spider.

One day he saw a thief run by, but Peter didn't do _____ to catch him. He preferred to call the police _____ they could persecute him and take him to jail. When he got back home, there were cops and ambulances _____ and Peter asked his aunt Mary: "What happened?" and she told him: "There was a robbery, your uncle tried to stop him and.....", she couldn't continue and started crying.

Peter decided he would stop this burglar at any cost, when he heard a policeman talking on his radio, he said they had the robber surrounded in a warehouse, but they couldn't enter _____ he had hostages, so, Peter put on his Spider-man costume _____ to catch the thief in the warehouse.

_____ he caught the robber and saved the hostages, Peter Parker wasn't a hero. From that day on, he learned a lesson. He learned that "With great power, comes great responsibility".