

GERUNDS

Instructions: Make up complete examples using the following adjectives and Gerunds.

Example: Swimming is one of the most relaxing sports there are.

Crashing your car may be frustrating if you do it often.

Cleaning my house is exhausting after you do it for several hours.

1. (exciting)
2. (boring)
3. (tiring)
4. (confusing)
5. (invigorating)
6. (humiliating)
7. (shocking)
8. (amazing)
9. (interesting)
10. (embarrassing)
11. (surprising)
12. (relaxing)

Instructions: Answer the following questions in pairs.

Example:

What is most exciting activity you have ever done in your life?

Jumping from a plane with a parachute has been one of the most exciting activities in my life.

1. What were your favorite activities when you were a child?
2. What are some of the things you feel proud about?
3. What are some of the things you regret doing (from your past)?
4. What are some of the things you feel happy about doing nowadays?
5. What are some of the activities you like to do the most at work?

6. What are some of the activities you like to do the least at home?
7. What have been the most dangerous activities you've ever been involved in?

Instructions: Complete the following sentences using complete ideas.

Example: Thank you for lending me your pen.

I'm thinking about taking a Master's degree in Administration.

1. I'm tired of _____.
2. My boss is worried about _____.
3. I will only learn perfect English by _____.
4. Last week, I forgot about _____.
5. I felt sick after _____.
6. Thank you for _____.
7. I always say goodbye before _____.
8. I'm very good at _____.
9. My co-workers are very happy about _____.
10. I need some money for _____.
11. The new manager is really bad at _____.
12. I will only have a healthy denture by _____.
13. I'm thinking of _____.
14. My co-workers like the idea of _____.
15. The little girl is sad about _____.